West Toowong Bowls Club – Types of Membership

Ordinary Member ($120 per annum)

These members have full bowling and voting rights and will normally be registered with Bowls Qld to play in Social, Club Championships and interclub competitions. Players who are members of two clubs will have to declare which club they will play for in certain District events.

Members who do not play in competitions will not be registered with Bowls Qld

Associate Member ($60 per annum)

These members may use the bowling green facilities (e.g., for rollups) but are not permitted to play in social, club, district, state or national bowling competitions. They also have no voting rights, not eligible to hold any office in the club or nominate new members. New associates can play in social competitions for their 3 months of membership. After this they will need to take up ordinary membership if they want to play in competitions.

Junior Member ($TBA per annum)

These members must be under 18 and are eligible to play in Club Championship and official interclub competitions. They have no voting rights, not eligible to hold any office in the club or nominate new members..

Conduct of Members

Members must maintain a proper discipline and decorum and shall not conduct illegal gambling, bet on games, speak obscene or abusive language or indulge in unseemly conduct. Where members breach this rule, the Management Committee has the power to demand and direct apologies, and, if necessary, suspend or expel the member.
